Monday Night for the Master is planned for June 22nd. Dinner is at 6:00 and activities start at 6:25.

If you have not filled out an involvement form for the involvement ministry, please see Terry Cagle to get a form. We need to have every member fill out one of these!

The Benevolence Ministry is planning their next grocery distribution on June 4th from 9:00 until 11:00 in the multipurpose building. Even with the horrible rainstorm, they gave out food to over 130 people last month! Your help with this endeavor is greatly needed! FROM DAVID'S DESK

“Go, and Do Likewise!”

It is a fact of history that Abraham Lincoln was highly criticized during his presidency. Many people loved and supported him and others hated him because of his views on slavery. He once wrote in an article, “He has the right to criticize who has the heart to help”. He welcomed criticism when the person doing it had a helpful attitude, but not if he just loved being critical.

After a church service in which the minister had preached about spiritual gifts, he was greeted at the door by a woman who said, “Preacher, I believe I have the gift of criticism”. He responded, “Do you remember the person in Jesus’ parable who had the one talent? Do you recall what he did with it?” “Yes”, replied the woman, “he went out and buried it” (see Matthew 25:18). With a smile, the preacher suggested, “Go, and do likewise!” (Speakers Source Book, pg 53)

If criticism is not given lovingly and with an honest desire to help, it can be cruel and destructive. The words of Leviticus 19:17, “You shall surely rebuke your neighbor, and not bear sin because of him”, are preceded by warnings against spreading slander and nursing hatred. When is it appropriate to criticize someone without sinning in the process? Try asking the following three questions:

1. Am I motivated by a desire to help the other person?
2. Am I planning to face him honestly, but gently?
3. Am I doing this for the Lord or because I enjoy being critical?

If your goal is to help, if your motives are loving, and if your desire is to please God, then go ahead and criticize. If you can’t pass these tests, KEEP QUIET!

Youth Corner

Looking Back

It is hard to believe that Lindsey and I have been here one year. We really appreciate everyone being patient while we got adjusted. When we started looking for a Youth Ministry job, we wanted to find a busy congregation and we are blessed to be here at Azalea City. We look forward to many years to come.

Every year we have to watch our seniors leave the youth group and transition into college. I would like to thank Brittany, Alex, Joey and Daniel for the ways they have contributed to our group. I want to wish them the best at college.

As we look over these past few years, is there anything that you wish you would have done differently? We all need to reflect from time to time and make a habit of the good that we did and learn from the bad. Seniors, remember to take time to reflect, but remember to look forward to the bright future that you have. Remember, as you go off to college, to heed the words of Matthew 6:33- "But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you." Also remember to come back and visit us often. We Love You!

Jason
